

2019 CRITICAL LEGAL CONFERENCE

Alienation

Programme

September 12

11:00-13:00 Registration (Main Hall)
14:00 – Welcome to the Conference
14:30 Keynote speaker (Room 7) – COSTAS DOUZINAS “Homo Juridicus: On Legal alienation and other diseases”
16:00 Refreshments
16:30 Stream session 1 (Law and Aesthetics; Marx and the Law I; Gender, Race and Alienation I; Artificial Intelligence and Alienation I; Alien Nations and the Authoritarian Constitutionalism)
18:00 Refreshments
18:15 Keynote speaker (Room 7) – MARCIA TIBURI “Colombo Complex: The Original Cleavage between the Old and New World”
19:45 Welcome cocktail – Garden of the Department of Law

September 13

9:30 Stream session 2 (Affect, Alienation and the Law I; Marx and the Law II, Artificial Intelligence and Alienation II; Gender, Race and Alienation II; General Stream I)
11:00 Refreshments
11:30 Keynote Speaker (Room 7) – HELENA ALVIAR – Presentation of the book “Authoritarian Constitutionalism. Comparative Analysis and Critique” edited by Helena Alviar and Günter Frankenberg
13:00 Lunch (Garden of the Department of Law)
14:00 pm Stream session 3 (Alienation and Family Law; Affect, Alienation and the Law II; Artificial Intelligence and Alienation III; Constructing the Other I; General Stream II)
15:30 Stream session 4 (The Deconstruction of Sovereignty I; Alienation as a counterhegemonic discourse I; Gender, Race and Alienation III; Colonial and postcolonial spaces as systems of alienation I; Constructing the Other II)
17:00 Refreshments
17:30 – 19 Keynote speaker (Room 7) – SANDRO MEZZADRA “Alienation: A Crucial Problematic Beyond the Pitfalls and Shortcomings of a Concept”

20:30 Conference Dinner – Garden of the Department of Law

September 14

9:30 Stream session 5 (Affect, Alienation and the Law III; General Stream III; The Deconstruction of Sovereignty II; Migrations I; Alienation as a counterhegemonic discourse II)
11:00 Stream session 6 (General Stream IV; The Deconstruction of Sovereignty III; Constructing the Other III; Colonial and postcolonial spaces as systems of alienation II; Migrations II)
12:30 CLC business meeting
13:00 Lunch (Garden of the Department of Law)

Thursday 12 September

ROOM	5 (ground floor)	7 (ground floor)	9 (ground floor)	TBA	8 (ground floor)
STREAM	Law and Aesthetics  Chair: Thomas Giddens	Marx and the Law  Chair: Moritz Neugebauer	Gender, Race and Alienation  Chair: Anastasia Tataryn	Artificial Intelligence, Technology and Alienation  Chair: Giacomo Capuzzo	Alien Nations and the Authoritarian Constitutionalism  Chair: Giorgio Repetto
Session 1 16:30	Thomas Giddens  The Aesthetics of Legal Pedagogy: Law as Scholarship and the Marketisation of UKHE  Chris Lloyd  Ratio decidendi... the saga continues.  Daniel Matthews  Law and Aesthetics in The Anthropocene: From the Rights of Nature to the Aesthesis of Obligations	Robert Herian  Alienation of the Data subject  Riccardo Fornasari  The transformations of the juridical subject through the lens of political economy  Neil Graffin  Alienation and the Legal Profession  Lisa Wintersteiger,  Tara Mulqueen,  Alienation or access? Public legal education, technology and the democratisation of legal knowledge.	Diletta Giunchedi  Maternity, Intention, and Alienation  Elisa Bertilla de Siqueira Silva  Decrypting Women's Alienation  Elisabetta Bertolino  Cuts in sexual difference: The case of commercial sex	Bernard Keenan  Alienation, cognitive labour, and the autopoiesis of media  Dominik Świątkowski  The development of artificial intelligence in music from the perspective of the author. A chance for development or a threat of alienation?  Jacek Gwoździewicz  Alienation vs Artificial Intelligence and postscarcity world	Attila Nagy  Sovereignty and its alienated understanding of constitutions  Hayley Gibson  Consumed but not Used: Citizenship and the Accursed Share  Maciej Krogel  The people and the managers. On the reforms of independent institutions in Hungary and in Poland

Friday September 13

ROOM	8	Graduation Hall	9	7
STREAM	Affect, Alienation and the Law Law's Affect  Chair: Ilan rua Wall	Marx and the Law  Chair: Robert Herian	Gender, Race and Alienation  C  Chair: Josephine Greenbook	General Stream  Chair: Chris Lloyd
Session 2 9:30	Ivanka Antova  Taking back control (of our health): the responsabilized citizen and postBrexit health governance.  Jen Neller  Affect and Identity in the Passage of Hate Speech Legislation  Moritz Neugebauer  Repeating Pashukanis, situating Riles: towards an immanent critique of modern law	Emanuele Sigismondi  The Real Abstraction of Law  Benjamin Flander  Doing wrong, telling truth: Interrogation, coercion, confession  Åsa Ågren  Alienation, reification, the nature and the law	Ariadni Polichroniou  From Alienation to Dispossession: Subjectivity, Otherness and Collective Resistance in the butlerian conceptual framework  Arianna Porrone  A critical feminist approach on the international right to food - Gender, Race and Alienation  Thomas Ebbs  The Conduct of Alienation in Feminist Activism	Marisa Almeida Araújo,  Augusto Meirei  Erradicating Sharia Law, A Sign Of Cultural Genocide?  Mauro Balestrieri  Meaning Lost: The Collapse of Language in Western Legal Tradition  Rafał Mańko  Overcoming judicial alienation: towards a new discourse of legitimization of judicial decisions  Vito De Lucia  Dissolution from Munus. Dispute on Poverty and the Birth of Modernity

Friday September 13

ROOM	9	7	Graduation Hall	8
STREAM	Alienation and Family Law  Chair: Giovanni Landi	Affect, Alienation and the Law Transformations  Chair: Stacy Douglas	Constructing the Other: Alienation  Chair: Maria Chiara Locchi	General Stream  Chair: Simone Vezzani
Session 3 14:00	Evis Garunja  Alimony, legal liability as well as social. Albanian case  Clara Hilger  Fiduciaries and Sexual Violence: An Equitable Reimagination of Intimate Relations  Mario Renna  Parental Alienation Syndrome between conflicts and the best interest of the child	James Martel  “Affect, material rights and the General Strike”  Illan rua Wall  Hearts and Minds  Yvette Russell  Decolonising sexual violence: Erotic transformation as revolutionary politics  Swastee Ranjan  Thinking of Objects through Law and the City- An Affective Intervention	Puja  Monica Ingber  Forest Governance and the ‘Othering’ of Tribal Communities (Indigenous)Epistemes in India  Maria Brancati      Giovanna  Criminal sovereignty and migration in Italy: nothing but Criminalization as Alienation  Rafał Mańko  Alienation of the Polish legal community: historical roots and current consequences	Aravinda Kosaraju  Law’s Uses and Abuses of Alienation: A case of Sexually Exploited Children  Thomas Kemp  Countering Alienation? Witnessing and the politics of amplification in the context of detainee activism  Scott Veitch  Solidarity: Perversions and Promises  Giovanni Pizza  Animality and mutation. Alienation in Antonio Gramsci’s works

Friday September 13

ROOM	7	Graduation Hall	TBA	9	8
STREAM	The Deconstruction of Sovereignty  Chair: Nicola Pettinari	Alienation as a counterhegemonic discourse  Chair: Anastasia Tataryn	Gender, Race and Alienation  Chair: Elisabetta Bertolino	Colonial and postcolonial spaces as systems of alienation  Chair: Stuart Murray	Constructing the Other: Alienation  Chair: Hayley Gibson
Session 4 15:30	Yannis Flytzanis  From a critique of sovereignty to the potential of a community beyond the state: Bringing Marx and Arendt together  Nicola Abate  Démocratie Ou Barbarie. The Deliberative Politics As The Deconstruction Of The System's Alienation  Paolo Parlanti  The Representation of the People in the Paradox of Politics  Guadalupe Sátiro  The deconstruction of food sovereignty for the construction of food autonomy: from the narrative of rights to a narrative of capabilities.	Ari Hirvonen  Refugee struggles. Alienation and Resistance  Tara Mulqueen  Incorporation, co-operation and enclosure  Avitus Agbor  Gauging Alienation As A Political Tool And Strategy: Focus On African Socio-Economic And Political Landscape	Elena Ghidoni  Stereotyping as a mechanism of alienation of the legal subject  Aurelia Yueyi Guo  Radical mimesis and racism in Place's Gone with The Wind	Mark Harris  Genocide and the Lexicon of Settler-Colonialism  Shelley Bielefeld  Colonial Spaces as Systems of Alienation: The Community Development Program and Indigenous Peoples  Yustina Trihoni Nalesti Dewi  The Fall and Rise of Indonesia's Adat Institutions from the Sovereign Community Perspective	Riccardo Baldissoni  Good morning starts in the morning: the notion of alienation as a cornerstone of the logic of identity  Mirthe Jiwa  The Contractual Subject and its Other  Daniel Arboleda  The progressiveness of the Inter-American Human Rights System: a trigger for alienation?

Saturday September 14

ROOM	7	9	5
STREAM	The Deconstruction of Sovereignty Chair: Jacopo Paffarini	Migrations: Aliens And The Need To Re-Imagine The Nation Chair: Maria Chiara	Affect, Alienation and the Law Narratives. Myth and Power Chair: Swastee Ranjan
Session 5 9:30	Stuart Murray Two Irreconcilable Claims to Medico-Legal Sovereignty Nico Buitendag A Big History of the State and Law: ‘This is not a place of honour’ Angus McDonald Since kings break faith upon commodity..... Erdem Erturk Deconstructing sovereignty within the context of recognition of states under international law	Theodora Morou, Statelessness. A manifestation of social and political alienation Olivia Maury Student-migrant-workers: From alienated labour to resisting subjects? Josephine T. V. Greenbrook, The Construction of Medicolegal Alienation in Physicians Practising in Liminal Clinics Servicing Undocumented Migrant Patients	Bal Sokhi Bulley Complicated Affects: Friendship as Belonging and Betrayal David Thomas Revolt against Alienation: Digging and Time Stacy Douglas Feel-Good Despots &amp; Other Myths

Saturday September 14

ROOM	8	7	9	5
STREAM	Constructing the Other: Alienation  Chair: Maria Chiara Locchi	Colonial and postcolonial spaces as systems of alienation  Chair: Yvette Russell	Migrations: Aliens And The Need To Re-Imagine The Nation  Chair: Josephine Greenbook	General Stream
Session 6 11:00	Adimaya Keni  Creating the alien-nation: fingerprinting and its colonial legacy  Sonia Qadir  The Muslim as Fanatic: British Colonial Legality and the Construction of the Other in Contemporary Pakistan  Fernando Gomez Herrero  The Becoming Other of The (International) Law: James Leslie Brierly and Camilo Barcia Trelles	Julie Wetterslev  The titling of land as indigenous property - a process of alienation?  Emma Grego Tina Youan  Alienation Act. How Constitutional Power creates alienation  Flávia do Amaral Vieira  Human Rights In Dispute: Corporations And Latin America	Hedvig Obenius van Stellingwerff,  Critical Legal Cartographic (CLC) approach  Rimpi Borah  Politics of migration, identity and sub-nationalism: the case of National Register of Citizens (Nrc) in Assam  Anastasia Tataryn,  Labour, Migration and Law as Ecotechnical	Marco Goldoni  Emilios Christodoulidis  Presentation and discussion of the Research Handbook on Critical Legal Theory, Edward Elgar, 2019