Objective

The purpose of the Conference is to illustrate the law and practice of EU Countries on alternative dispute resolution in crimes relevant to the EU budget.

Experts and academics coming from all over Europe will examine the relevant national provisions and principles governing alternative resolution, diversion and mediation related to financial crimes. They will discuss recent insights at both EU and national levels, including:

- Key features of alternative resolution, diversion and mediation procedures
- Case studies and best practices in EU Member States
- Relevance of restorative justice in EU law

Attendance

The Conference is open. No registration fee is required. It will take place in a hybrid format. If you cannot attend in person, you may join on Zoom:
